YAAAAAASSSSS!!!! You should meet with [REDACTED]! He's a teacher at Northwoods Elementary. He would put books in a fellow warrior parents child's back back. I send you the pics of the one that teaches our kids to hate cops on FB messenger and the one that tells them to hate their white skin.

Sincerely,

Just as info I am sending this open records request to all school districts in the 68th Assembly District. I want to know if the list you provided are in other schools, besides Eau Claire and Cadott.

Good afternoon:

Representative Jesse James has received numerous contacts from concerned parents over possible inappropriate reading material available to students through their school libraries. Attached to this email is a list of books that have raised concern based on the graphic or explicit content they contain. Representative James would like to know if the libraries in your schools/ school districts have these books available for students to check out, and if so, which grade levels have access to these books. If you can let our office know at your earliest convenience, that would be greatly appreciated. Thank you in advance.

Best,

Victoria Casola and Maddy Hunt
